

Joe L. Leverett, MD

Joe Leverett, MD, FACP is a staff physician at JCMH Medical Clinic in Altus and board certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatric Medicine. For 34 years, he has had a traditional clinic, nursing home and hospital practice previously serving as Chief of Staff of Jackson County Memorial Hospital, Altus, Oklahoma. Joe is a fourth generation Altusian and attended Oklahoma State University and University of Oklahoma College of Medicine before completing an internal medicine residency at OU Medical Center.

When he's not practicing medicine, Joe serves as Chairman of the Altus Military Affairs Committee and as a Commissioner on the Oklahoma Strategic Military Planning Commission. He was an organizer for the AETC Community Support Award. Joe is an active member of First United Methodist Church and leads yearly medical mission trips to Mexico. He is a member of Leadership Oklahoma Class XXIV. In 2013, Gov. Mary Fallin appointed Joe to the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Commission.

Joe is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians. He is a former Honorary Commander 97th AMW, Altus Air Force Base and honored as A Friend of Altus. Joe serves on the AETC Commander's Civic Leader Group as well as Chief of Staff Air Force Civic Leader Group. The Leverett KC-46 Flight Training Center was named for his work at Altus Air Force Base.

Joe is married to Kimberly and they have two grown children.